Evaluation, comments, recommendations of the thesis advisor:

The author analyses the position of the individual in modern society laying stress on the emotional level of human being in the world. In his descriptions and analyses of the position of man in modern society, he relies primarily on authors who were inspired by the work of K. Marx and F. Nietzsche. He demonstrates a good knowledge of contemporary literature and the ability to see the problem in a broader historical context. He succeeds in expressing the ambiguity of modernity: on the one hand, the possibilities for the development of individuality and, on the other hand, consumerism and personal leveling.

I recommend this thesis for bachelor thesis defense in June 2023.
